Dear Parents

I visited your child's school today and gave a talk on playing the drums, with the view of providing drum tuition there. I talked about how rewarding it can be to take up a musical instrument like the drums, and also emphasised that it requires hard work and commitment, hence the name STICK-AT-IT!

About us.

STICK-AT-IT is a rapidly developing private music education service for Cornwall. Our contemporary approach to teaching young musicians has already been endorsed by over thirty schools in the region. All our tutors are security cleared and have trained at some of the country's top musical establishments.

Equipment

Taking up any musical instrument can be expensive, but all your child will need to get started is a pair of sticks, a rubber practice pad and their 'Be a Drummer Book.1' work book, all in a handy drawstring bag for just £25.45 Alternatively you can purchase these items from any good music shop. In the second term students broaden their musical vocabulary with Book.2 (£14.99 inc P&P). From there we progress to the Rock School grade syllabus (£16.89). At this stage it is advisable that the child has some kind of drum kit to practice on in order to prepare for exams. (See the website shop for information on drum kits)

Prices

Your child can start learning the drums within a small group for just £6.24 per week inc VAT. You would be invoiced at the beginning of each term and this is to be paid in full. Individual lessons can also be arranged at a cost of £12.52 per week inc VAT.

Funding

We are excited to announce that from September 2010 we will be placed on a database of recognized providers under Cornwall Council's 'Give it a Go' scheme. Children whose parents meet the criteria can have after school drum lessons with us subsidized by this scheme. For more information on eligibility, see your child's school.
